If no indication is made for EFS Advisors Choice, your funds will be invested in a Target Date Fund based upon the age you will turn 65 until further instruction indicating an alternate investment selection is received by EFS Advisors. The resulting score is a guideline for determining an appropriate asset mix given the risk associated with responses to the questionnaire. This is meant to be a good faith effort. In consideration of the, "Recommended Investment Mix" along with my personal financial concerns and goals, I have indicated the requested portfolio choice above or completed the allocation table which specifies my investment choice(s). In the event my personal circumstances change it is my responsibility to inform EFS Advisors in order to modify or change the personal investment profile. The result of this Questionnaire fulfills the requirements of the Investment Policy Statement of which a copy will remain on file. I will receive a completed copy by request.
